

The Personal Fortitude and Financial Peace Scholarship

Background:

The Personal Fortitude and Financial Peace Scholarship was established in 2020 by a group of Bismarck families who want to support students who have persevered through difficult personal challenges and/or students who show a strong desire and commitment to complete trade, technical or college education with minimal debt.

The founders are strong believers in the principles of personal responsibility, accountability and maximizing individual potential through education, hard work, and integrity. This scholarship aims to support young people who have shown fortitude to weather life's difficulties and have an aptitude and interest in responsible personal finance. Award winners will be provided materials and mentoring to not only help them better understand personal finance but also support their financial literacy journey.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Any high school senior attending school in Bismarck or Mandan who has demonstrated the fortitude to navigate and subsequently persevere through adverse life challenges.
- Open to any high school senior or current North Dakota college/trade school student who meets the scholarship application requirements.
- Awardee will be provided with Financial Peace educational materials to review and implement into their personal money management.
- The scholarship will be awarded to a student who will attend or is currently enrolled in a North Dakota university/college or trade school.

Additional Information

The selection committee will consist of 3 community members and 2 founding members of the scholarship fund.
