

Health Insurance for Terminating Employees

The termination date of fringe benefits will occur on an employee's last day of employment with the District unless extended to comply with provisions in the various group plans, companies providing coverage, and/or state or federal law/regulations.