

Assignment to Teachers and Classes

Assignment of students shall be based on the student's individual needs as determined by professional judgment. Student and parent requests will be considered in making the assignment.

At the middle and senior high levels elective programs are available and students, depending upon their level of maturity, are generally free to select the programs and subjects which best meet their needs.

The principal will make the final determination of assignment to teachers and classes if consensus cannot be reached.